SURPRISE PARTY HONORS SYLVIA NELSON
Extensive decorations in brilliant colors depicting witches, cats, pumpkins, turkeys, etc., and numerous novelty games featured the evening's entertainment, when Mrs. Olive Lee, 1228 Arlington avenue, entertained at her home with a surprise birthday party honoring Mrs. Sylvia Nelson.

Guests included Miss Alice Caruthers, Mrs. Mable Swisher, Nell Bradford, Lucille Lewellen, Virginia Scott, Bernice Guy, Gertrude Halston, Fan Wilkes, Roxie Sleeth, all of Torrance, and Juliette Young, of Los Angeles.

CHILDREN ENJOY COSTUME PARTY
Shouts of delight and tooting of horns indicated that the children, who came dressed as ghosts, favorite movie actors and characters from the fairy tales to the Halloween party given by Mrs. W. F. Burgener, 1630 Beech avenue, for her son, Harold, Wednesday afternoon had one grand time. Halloween favors were distributed, games were played and refreshments were of Halloween origin. Included in the party were Wesley and Vee Peterson, Ruth and Jack Jones, Bert Smith, June and Ivan Summers, JoAnn Snodgrass and Harold, all of Torrance, and Helen Beck, of Compton.

ATTEND BRIDGE PARTY IN COMPTON
Attending a bridge party at the home of Miss Loretta Fackett in Compton, Monday evening, were the Misses Marion and Alice Hodges, Miss Jane Roberts, Mrs. Alice Marie Rhone and Mrs. Baker Smith. Mrs. Smith was awarded the prize for high score in bridge.

Candlelight Ceremony Used at Wedding of Popular Torrance Couple Friday Evening

All white chrysanthemums and larkspur with a background of potted palms and ferns, decorated the First Christian church, Huntington Park, for the candlelight ceremony Friday evening in which Betty Jean McIntyre, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood McIntyre, C. C. M. O., became the bride of Earl Tavan, Jr., 1747 Andreo avenue. Rev. B. H. Lingenfelter, of Torrance, officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a princess gown of all white satin with finger tip tulle veil held in place by halo cap, which was edged in seed pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of gardenias. Jewel shades of moire were worn by the attendants. Mrs. Ada Lou Wolfe, matron of honor, wore a gown of dubonnet moire and carried an arm bouquet of tulle and roses. Marcella Kimbell, of Westwood, and Marianne King, of Coronado, bridesmaids, wore gowns of electric blue moire and carried arm bouquets of ambassador roses. The bride's mother wore a gown of tuscan wine crepe and corsage of gardenias. The groom's mother wore a gown of royal blue crepe and corsage of gardenias.

Joe Tavan served as his brother's best man. Bob Harvey, Herbert Mitchell and Clifford Wolfe, fraternity brothers of the groom, and Mason Beatty, of San Diego, were ushers.

The couple left on a motor trip to San Diego, where they are stopping at the El Cortez hotel. They will be at home to their newly furnished home, 227 avenue D, Redondo Beach.

Both young people were graduated from Torrance high school and attended University
